

Looking for coverage for you and your family? Let's talk.

When you have a Regence individual or family plan, you join millions of people just like you—people who are looking for health care coverage solutions. It's a conversation that's changing health care and health care coverage. I'd love to tell you more about the features Regence offers to meet your needs:

- A local, not-for-profit company that employs your fellow Oregonians.
- One of the largest provider networks in the state.
- A claims processing record that doctors love.
- Innovative solutions that put into your hands wellness information, savings and tools for better health

Give me a call so we can talk about what you're looking for. I'll help you find it—and more—at Regence.
